VALUATION (IRELAND) BILL.

CLAUSES

Proposed to be inserted after Clause 17 and before Clause 18 of the Bill.

Where the Valuation of any Barony has been made and decided on, Lists of the several Parishes, Townlands and Tenements shall be prepared and transmitted to the Treasurer of the County.

And be it Enacted, That so soon as the Valnation of any Barony within a County shall have been made in manner aforesaid, and all appeals which may have been made to the Sessions of the Peace as aforesaid sball have been decided, the said Commissioner of Valuation shall prepare and make out, in the Form (B.) to this Act annexed, a list of the several parishes within such Barony, and of the several townlands within each sucb parish according to the Valuation thereof so decided upon; and shall also prepare and make out, in the Form (C.) to this Act annexed, lists comprising those tenements only in each townland and parish of every Barony in the said County, which, under the provisions of the said Acts passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh year of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Fourth, were made liable to be included in the applotment for Grand Jury Rates and County Cess, and the said Commissioner of Valuation shall sign the said lists, and transmit the same, so signed, to the Treasurer of the County; and a copy of the said list in Form (B.) shall be published by the said Commissioner in some newspaper circulated in the county to which such Valuation shall relate: Provided nevertheless, That in making out the lists of tenements aforesaid the said Commissioner shall deduct from the value of the houses comprised in the said lists One-third part of the valne thereof, and the said houses shall be rateable to Grand Jury Cess according to the value thereof so reduced.

Valuation to be used for the Barony until the Assizes next after the meeting of Committee of Revision.

And be it Enacted, That from and after the end of the Assizes next after the transmission of such Lists, so signed as aforesnid, to the Treasurer of the county, and until the end of tbe Assizes next after the Valuation of all the baronies in the said county shall have been agreed on by the Committee of Revision, as bereinafter providcd, all County Cess Charges and Grand Jury Rates imposed or to be imposed, levied or to be levied, upon the said Barony, or any division thereof, under the authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament, sball be nssessed upon and levied off the said Barony, and every parish and townland therein, according to the proportions specified in such Lists so signed and transmitted as aforesaid in the Form (B.) to tbis Act annexed; and the said list of tenements in the Form (C.) aforesaid shall from and after the end of the Assizes next after the transmission thereof to the Treasurer of the county, be in lieu of the applotment theretofore made for the levying of Grand Jury Rates, and all County Cess Charges, and parish rates within the said Barony.

Printed image digitised by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit

County Treasurer to assess Grand Jury Rates upon Tenements by a Poundage Rate on the value set forth in the Lists.

And be it Enacted, That the Treasurer of the county in which any such Barony shall be situate shall, within One Month after he shall have received from the Clerk of the Crown the copies of the presentments of the preceding assizes, assess the sums collectable from each manor, parish, townland or other denomination in the said Barony upon the several tenements contained therein by an equal poundage rate upon the value thereof, as set forth in the Lists transmitted to the said Treasurer by the Commissioner of Valuation as aforesaid, and shall sign and transmit the said assessment in the Form (D.) to this Act annexed, to the collector duly authorized to collect the same, together with the warrant which, by the provisions of the said Act, intituled, "An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Presentment of Public Money by Grand Juries in Ireland," the said Treasurer is required to issue to the said collector so authorized as aforesaid; and the said collector, on receiving such warrant and assessment, is hereby required and authorized to levy the said sums according thereto, by the same powers and means as in the said last-mentioned Act are provided for the levying and collecting of Grand Jury Cess, and the said sums so assessed as aforesaid shall be chargeable on the lands and premises mentioned in such warrant and assessment, and shall be paid and payable by the same person or persons, and may be sued for in the same manner, as in the said Act is provided.

Assessment to be transmitted with Warrant to Cess Collector, under 6 & 7 W. 4, c. 116, s. 149.

But not to affect the relative proportion borne by such Barony.

Provided always, and be it Enacted, That the publication of the list and valuation of any Barony, as aforesaid, shall not alter or affect the relative proportion of County cess or charges which by any laws or usage may be or have been borne by such Barony as compared with any other Barony or Baronies.

Printed image digitised by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit